EDUCATION IN THE DOMINICAN TRADITION

Educating Women since 1878

Mission Statement

Saint Dominic Academy, a community of academic excellence, empowers women for leadership in our global society. Rooted in Christian values and the Dominican tradition of education, this Catholic Institution embraces the diversity of its constituents promoting unity through understanding and education.

School Philosophy

Founded in 1878, Saint Dominic Academy of Jersey City offers young women a strong intellectual and moral foundation. Sponsored by the Dominican Sisters of Caldwell, New Jersey, our school seeks to develop in each young woman academic excellence, as well as a love for truth, justice and Christian values. Ethnically diverse, our students come from an array of cultural and religious backgrounds. In accord with the multicultural character of our institution, Saint Dominic Academy strives to prepare each student for her vital role in the world community.

The following principles encapsulate the vision and identity of Saint Dominic Academy.

PERSONHOOD: Being made in the Creators' image, all persons have intrinsic worth and are entitled to just and respectful treatment.

DIVERSITY: Reflecting the make up of our global village, we encourage a profound respect for our differences and enjoyment of our varied heritages.

EDUCATION: We seek to educate the whole individual- intellectually, morally, spiritually, and physically- following traditions of the Church and our Dominican founders.

RESPONSIBILITY: We challenge each other to live responsibly by employing a curriculum that encourages our students to hold justice as a priority, to practice decision making through the lens of contemplation and respect the sacredness of all creation.

CREATIVE ENTHUSIASM: Realizing that the excitement of the learning process is as valuable as the final outcome, we encourage healthy participation and creative collaboration-not merely competition.
