Note: If a registered student withdraws prior to June 15, the family will not be responsible for any tuition payments (if any tuition has been paid it will be refunded). After June 15, the family will be responsible for the full amount of tuition and fees for the fall semester. The fall semester includes the months of September through January, and is 50% of the annual tuition and fee amount. All requests for withdrawal must be in writing. The date of withdrawal will be determined based on the date a written request is received by the school. This amount will be immediately due and payable as of the withdrawal date.

If a student withdraws voluntarily or is dismissed from Saint Dominic Academy during the academic year, the family will be responsible for the full amount of tuition and fees for the semester in which the withdrawal occurs. The fall semester includes the months of September through January. The spring semester includes the months of February through June. This amount will be immediately due and payable as of the withdrawal date.
